

Congratulations! You have been named one of Denver's 150 – a special honor recognizing ordinary citizens who are making extraordinary contributions to the Mile High City.

Denver's 150 was created to celebrate the City's 150th birthday and to honor 150 of its citizens as “unsung heroes” – people like yourself who are making Denver a better place for this and future generations. (For more information on how we selected Denver's 150, please see the enclosed fact sheet.)

Please be my guest at a special ceremony honoring you and your fellow honorees on the City's birthday, Saturday, November 22, 2008. The ceremony takes place at the Colorado History Museum, 1300 Broadway, from 8-10 a.m. and will conclude with you joining me for a tour of the new exhibit Imagine a Great City: Denver at 150. At the ceremony, we will introduce you by name, honor you with a distinctive plaque and give you a gift as a token of our gratitude.

Because of limited seating, please limit the number of guests you bring to this ceremony to no more than two, in addition to yourself. Next week we will provide you with more detailed information about the schedule for the November 22 event, including information about parking, photos, etc.

Please RSVP to Steve Jones at steve.jones@denvergov.org or (720) 913-1637 by Monday, November 17. If you cannot attend, you can arrange to pick up your plaque and gift at a later date at the Wellington Webb Municipal Building.

Thank you again for your contributions to making Denver a great city.

Sincerely

John Hickenlooper
Mayor of Denver
